

Offering the biggest Zulu Cultural Event in the World – choose September. This is the time when thousands of Zulu maidens each take up a reed and proceed amidst singing and dancing to the Royal Kraal to present to their King. But to live among the Zulu and enjoy their culture and history do not wait for September. Come to Ulundi where you can gaze over the Valley of the Kings at the Ukhamba Beer Pot viewpoint or visit the Ondini Zulu Cultural Museum. Here it will be also worth your while to visit the superbly crafted tapestries in the KwaZulu Cultural Museum depicting the history of the Zulu Nation.
